(overseas - international call rates may apply)

You can vote from overseas in the Tauranga by-election from Wednesday 1 June until 7pm, Saturday 18 June (NZ time).

Who can vote from overseas?

You can vote from overseas if you are enrolled in the Tauranga general electorate and:

- are a New Zealand citizen who has been in New Zealand in the last 3 years, or
- a New Zealand permanent resident who has been in New Zealand in the last 12 months.

If you're a New Zealand citizen and have not been in New Zealand in the last 3 years, or a permanent resident and have not been in New Zealand in the last 12 months, you are no longer eligible to enrol to vote.

If this applies to you, please contact us at overseas@vote.nz to let us know that you're no longer eligible.

Keep your enrolment details up to date

It's important to keep your enrolment details up to date so that you can take part in the by-election.

It's easy to enrol or update your enrolment details online at vote.nz using your New Zealand driver licence, New Zealand passport or RealMe verified identity.

How to vote from overseas

You can vote from overseas from Wednesday 1 June

Your voting papers are not automatically sent to you overseas. The easiest and quickest way to vote from overseas is to download and print your voting papers for the Tauranga by-election at vote.nz. You can download your voting papers from Wednesday 1 June. They need to be returned by 7pm (NZ time), Saturday 18 June 2022.

You need to be correctly enrolled before you can download your voting papers.

You may also be able to vote in person or request a postal vote from an overseas voting place. These options may depend on the COVID-19 situation in your area. Check vote.nz for the latest updates. If you're on the unpublished roll you won't be able to download your voting papers and will need to use another option.

If you are not able to download your voting papers or get them from an overseas voting place, email overseas@vote.nz or call +64 9 909 4182 (from overseas – international call rates may apply) for further assistance.

Vote before you go

Vote before you go

If you'll be in New Zealand when advance voting opens on Saturday 4 June, it will be easier to vote before you go overseas.

Information about where and when to vote will be available from Tuesday 17 May at vote.nz or call 0800 36 76 56.

How to return your voting papers

Completed voting papers can be scanned or photographed and uploaded at vote.nz, faxed to +64 4 494 2300 or hand delivered or posted to an overseas voting place.

You cannot return your voting papers by email.

Full information on how to return your completed voting papers will be included with your voting papers.

How to use your voting papers

In the by-election you have one vote for your electorate member of Parliament (MP). There is no party vote.

On your voting paper, place a tick next to the name of the person you would most like to represent the Tauranga general electorate.
