Vote in the Tauranga by-election.

Voting in the Tauranga by-election begins on Saturday 4 June. Your last chance to vote is on election day, Saturday 18 June.

Make sure you're enrolled and your details are up to date.

To vote, you need to be enrolled. You must enrol if you are 18 years or older, a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident, and you've lived in New Zealand continuously for 12 months or more at some time in your life. You can only vote in the Tauranga by-election if you are enrolled in the Tauranga general electorate.

Enrol early to make voting quick and easy

If you're enrolled by Wednesday 11 May, you'll get an EasyVote pack in the mail about 2 weeks before election day.

Your EasyVote pack will tell you when you can vote and who you can vote for. Your pack will also include your personalised EasyVote card, which makes voting faster and easier. You can still vote without your EasyVote card, but it may take longer.

You can enrol after Wednesday 11 May, including on election day, but you won't get your EasyVote card. You'll also need to cast a special vote which takes longer.

Enrol, check or update your details online

It's easy to enrol, check or update your details. Go online to vote.nz to check if you're enrolled. You can enrol or update your details at vote.nz using your New Zealand driver licence, New Zealand passport or RealMe verified identity, or call 0800 36 76 56 to ask for an enrolment form to be sent to you.

Vote early

The Tauranga by-election will be held on Saturday 18 June. Vote early so you spend less time in a queue — you don't need to wait until election day to vote.

Voting opens: Saturday 4 June

Voting closes: 7.00pm on election day, Saturday 18 June

Tauranga electorate

The Tauranga electorate comprises Tauranga city and its surrounding areas, bounded to the west by the Wairoa River and to the east by the Waiorohi Stream. It includes Mt Maunganui and Tauranga Airport.

Voting in the Tauranga by-election

You can vote from Saturday 4 June to Friday 17 June at any advance voting place. You can also enrol, check or update your details at the same time.

The days and times when advance voting places are open vary. Check before you go to vote at vote.nz.

On election day, Saturday 18 June, all voting places will be open from 9am to 7pm. You can enrol on election day itself, but you'll also need to cast a special vote which takes longer.

Information about where and when to vote, and who you can vote for, will be available from 4pm Tuesday 17 May at vote.nz or by calling 0800 36 76 56. It will also be included in your EasyVote pack.

How to vote

1 COVID-19 safety measures

Staff at voting places will be wearing masks. We'd encourage you to wear a mask too. We'll have disposable masks available if you'd like one. There'll be hand sanitiser to use, and if you like, you can bring your own pen to mark your voting paper.

2 Bring your EasyVote card

Take your EasyVote card with you as it will make voting faster. You can still vote if you forget your card or don't have one.

3 Follow directions

Election workers at your voting place will show you what to do and where to go. They'll also manage the queues to give voters more space.

4 Vote in the Tauranga by-election

You have one vote, for the candidate you want to be your local member of Parliament.

This is different from a general election when you have two votes – one for a party and the other for your local candidate.

5 Your electorate vote

Your electorate vote is for choosing the candidate you would like to be the member of Parliament (MP) for the area you live in. The candidate with the most votes in your electorate becomes your electorate MP.

On your voting paper, place a tick by the name of the candidate you would most like to represent your local area.

6 Place your voting paper in the ballot boxes provided

And that's it – you've voted!

Can't get to a voting place?

If getting to a voting place is difficult or not possible, several options are available to make sure you can still vote. If you're in a rest home, the Electorate Manager will contact the manager of your rest home to arrange voting services.

If you can't get to a voting place because you are in hospital, from Saturday 4 June, a friend or family member can bring you your voting papers.

If you can't get to a voting place because you have COVID-19 or you are isolating, or because you have poor health or mobility, you can get help to vote. Find out more at vote.nz or call 0800 36 76 56 to talk over your options.

Voting from overseas

If you're voting from overseas, you must be enrolled by midnight Friday 17 June. You can enrol or update your details at vote.nz

You can vote from overseas from Wednesday 1 June until 7.00pm, Saturday 18 June (NZ time).

The easiest and quickest way to vote from overseas is to download and print your voting papers and then upload them at vote.nz

You may also be able to vote in person at your nearest overseas voting place, or ask them for postal voting papers to be sent to you. If these options don't work for you, please contact us. These options may depend on the COVID-19 situation in your area.

Check vote.nz for the latest information about voting from overseas. If you need help to vote from overseas, please contact us.

Need help to read or mark your voting papers?

A friend, family member or electoral official can help you to read or mark your voting paper. That person can:

- go behind the voting screen with you
- read out the words and information on the voting paper
- mark the voting paper for you if you ask them to.

They can't tell you who you should vote for in the Tauranga by-election.

If you're blind, partially blind or have a physical disability that means you can't mark your voting paper without help, you can vote using the phone dictation service.

You need to register to use this service. Call 0800 028 028 and select option 1 to register.

You can register from Thursday 12 May until 12pm Saturday 18 June.

Visit vote.nz to find out more about this service.
