

For this year's general election, things are different.

You need to enrol before voting starts or your vote won't count. There are three key dates you need to know to make sure you can vote with confidence and ease at this year's election.

4 October EasyVote

If you're enrolled and your details are up to date by 4 October, then you'll get an EasyVote card.

This makes voting quicker and easier for everyone.

25 October Last chance to enrol

Enrolment closes at midnight, 25 October. Voting starts the next day, so this is your last day to enrol for this year's election.

This is the most important date for you and your whānau to know.

7 November Election day

Voting starts on 26 October, and ends at 7pm on election day, 7 November.

Check vote.nz for voting places near you.

Enrol or update your details by 25 October at vote.nz/enrol with your NZ driver licence, NZ passport or RealMe verified identity.

If you don't have those things, you can find other ways to enrol here: vote.nz/other-ways or call us for free at any time on 0800 36 76 56.
