Eligibility to vote

You must enrol if you live in NZ and are:

- 18 or older, and
- a citizen or a permanent resident of NZ, and
- have ever lived in NZ continuously for one year or more.

You can enrol at 17 but can't vote until you're 18.

If you live overseas you can enrol if you're a:

- NZ citizen who has visited NZ within the last 3 years, or
- NZ permanent resident and have visited NZ in the last 12 months.

For electoral purposes, a permanent resident is anyone lawfully in NZ and not required to leave within a specific time. If you're Australian, Cook Islander, Niuean, or Tokelauan you can enrol if you've lived in NZ continuously for one year or more. If this applies to you, you don't need a resident visa to enrol.

Personal safety

If having your information on the published electoral roll threatens you or your family's personal safety, you can apply to go on the unpublished roll. The unpublished roll is confidential. To learn more visit us at vote.nz/form

What address should I use?

Use the address you consider to be your home. Your home address does not change if you sometimes live away from home for your work or education.

Māori descent and roll choice

For enrolment purposes, Māori descent means you are descended from a NZ Māori. This includes Chatham Island Māori, but not Cook Island Māori.

If you're of Māori descent, you can choose to enrol on the Māori roll or the general roll. Your choice affects your electorate vote but not your party vote. On the Māori roll you'll vote for a candidate in a Māori electorate. On the general roll you'll vote for a candidate in a general electorate.

Your choice is important. This is because you can only choose your roll when:

- you enrol for the first time, or
- it is the Māori Electoral Option (this happens every 5 years and takes place next in 2024), or
- you were removed from the roll before the start of the last Māori Electoral Option in April 2018.
