Your EasyVote pack

If you're enrolled by Sunday 10 September, you'll get an EasyVote pack in the mail.

Your EasyVote pack will tell you when you can vote and who you can vote for. Your pack will also include your personalised EasyVote card, which makes voting easier. You can still vote without your EasyVote card, but it may take longer.

If you enrol after Sunday 10 September, including on election day, you won't get your EasyVote card. You'll need to cast a special vote, which takes longer. Voting opens: 9am on Monday 2 October

Voting closes: 7pm on election day, Saturday 14 October

When voting places are open and where to find them

How to vote

Bring your EasyVote card

Take your EasyVote card with you as it will make voting easier. You can still vote if you forget your card or don't have one.

There will be someone at the voting place to help you

Election workers at your voting place will show you what to do and where to go.

Vote in the general election

In a general election, you get two votes - a party vote and an electorate vote.

Your party vote

Your party vote is for the political party you want to support.

This vote largely decides the total number of seats each political party gets in Parliament. Parties with a bigger share of the party vote will get more seats in Parliament.

You can choose from the same list of political parties whether you're on the general roll or Māori roll.

On your voting paper, place a tick by the name of the political party of your choice.

Your electorate vote

Your electorate vote is to choose the candidate you would like to be the member of Parliament (MP) for the area you live in.

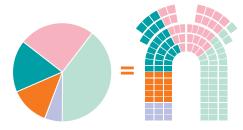

The candidate with the most votes in your electorate becomes your electorate MP. They will represent your local area in Parliament.

If you're on the Māori roll, you will vote for a candidate standing in a Māori electorate.

If you're on the general roll, you will vote for a candidate standing in a general electorate.

On your voting paper, place a tick by the name of the candidate you would most like to represent your local area.

This proportion of the party votes = The same proportion of seats in Parliament

Place your voting paper in the ballot box provided

And that's it - you've voted!

Can't get to a voting place?

Voting from overseas

If you're voting from overseas, you must be enrolled by midnight Friday 13 October. You can enrol or update your details at vote.nz.

You can vote from overseas from Wednesday 27 September until 7pm Saturday 14 October (NZ time).

The easiest and quickest way to vote from overseas is to download and complete your voting paper and then upload it at vote.nz.

Need help to read or mark your voting papers?

A friend, family member, or electoral official can help you to read or mark your voting paper. That person can:

- go behind the voting screen with you
- read out the words and information on the voting paper
- mark the voting paper for you if you ask them to.

They can't tell you who you should vote for in the general election.

If you're blind, partially blind or have a physical disability that means you can't mark your voting paper without help, you can vote using the telephone dictation service.

You need to register to use this service. Call 0800 028 028 and select option 1 to register.

You can register from Monday 11 September until noon, Saturday 14 October.

Visit vote.nz to find out more about this service.
