You can complete and sign an enrolment form on behalf of someone else in any of the following three situations:

- the applicant is unable to sign because of a mental impairment
- the applicant is unable to sign because of a physical impairment
- the applicant is overseas.

Who can apply on behalf of someone else?

You can apply on behalf of someone else in these situations if one of the following applies:

Situation	You can sign if one of the following applies
The person has a mental impairment	You are enrolled to vote ..... You hold enduring power of attorney for the person ..... You are the person's welfare guardian appointed under section 12(1) of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988
The person has a physical impairment	You are enrolled to vote ..... You hold power of attorney for the person
The person is overseas	You are enrolled to vote ..... You hold power of attorney for the person .....

Is it compulsory to enrol to vote?

A person must enrol if they live in New Zealand and are:

- 18 or older, and
- a New Zealand citizen or resident for electoral purposes, and
- have ever lived in New Zealand continuously for one year or more.

You're a resident for electoral purposes if you're living in New Zealand lawfully and you're not required to leave within a specified time. This includes someone on a resident visa.

A person can enrol at 17 but can't vote until they're 18.

Eligible people with mental or physical impairments should be enrolled to vote.

Voting is not compulsory.

If you live overseas, you can enrol if you're a:

- New Zealand citizen who has been in NZ within the last 3 years, or
- New Zealand resident for electoral purposes and have been in NZ in the last 12 months.

It is not compulsory to enrol if you live overseas.
